

PGN INSIDER

MARCH 2026 ISSUE

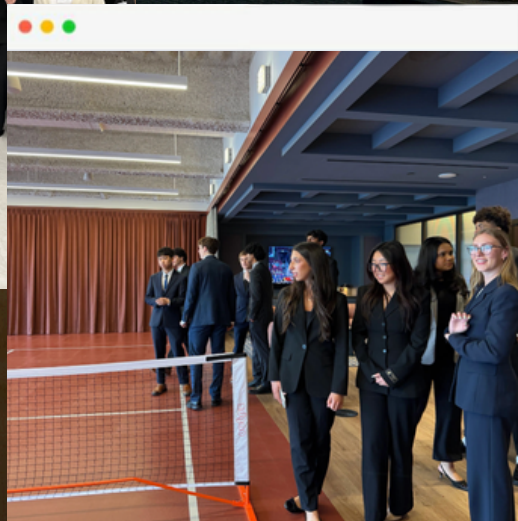

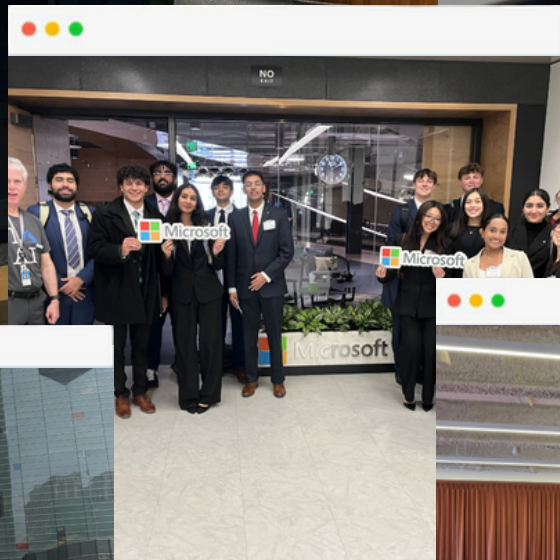

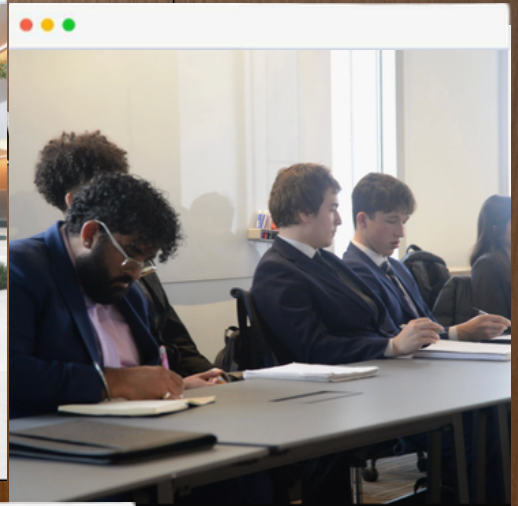

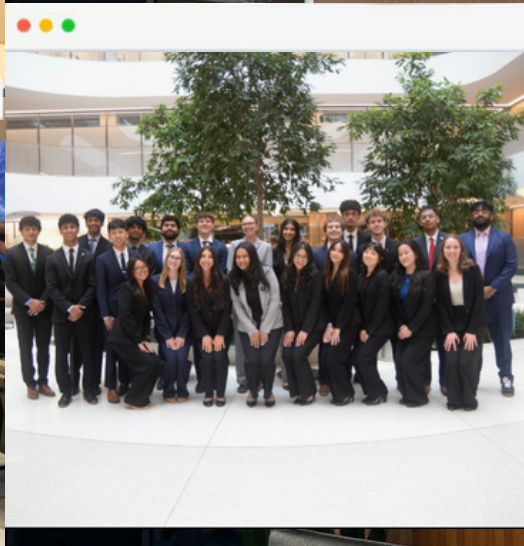

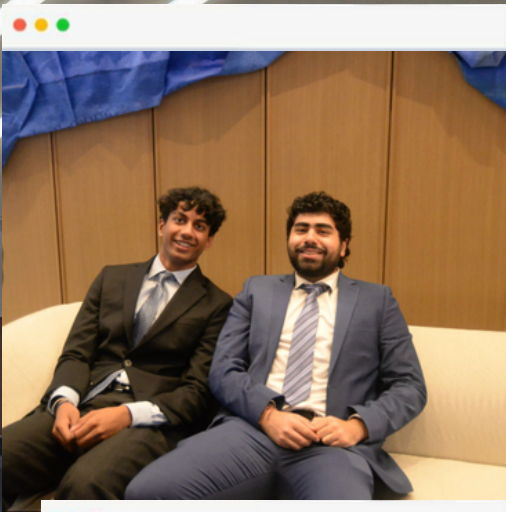

Written by Katie Nguyen

We are BACK in BUSINESS! Coldest March PGN has ever experienced but we are pushing through. This month, our brothers are strengthening meaningful connections during the Professional Detroit Trek, balancing polished professionalism with a touch of fun during our Professional Drinking Etiquette Social and traveled to CHI CITY for this years Formal! I would tell you about St. Patty's weekend but I don't think anyone remembers... Enjoy this months very busy, March issue!!

PROFESSIONAL DETROIT TREK

Members traveled to Detroit for a series of company visits with Accenture, McKinsey & Company, and Microsoft. Throughout the trip, they connected with professionals, gained valuable industry insights, and toured each organization's office spaces.

At McKinsey, members engaged with Business Analysts and received firsthand advice on the recruiting process. At Accenture, MSU alumni shared their diverse career paths and highlighted what differentiates the firm. The visit concluded at Microsoft's Detroit Innovation Hub, where members explored the space's unique capabilities and key focus areas.

PROFESSIONAL DRINKING ETIQUETTE

Michael Hsieh, CFO of Meditope Biosciences, Inc., joined our General Meeting as a guest speaker, offering valuable guidance on professional etiquette in social and client-facing settings. He shared insights on how to confidently conduct oneself at client dinners and networking events, including tips on selecting and ordering wine and cocktails. The week concluded with an interactive social event, where members applied these skills through a hands-on wine and food pairing experience.

Need I say more?

ST. PATTY'S WEEKEND

formal '26

chicago

DRINK MIXING

Members got a little scientific, concocting some interesting drinks at our Drink Mixing social!

EDITOR'S CORNER

MEET THE AUTHOR

KATIE NGUYEN

ABOUT ME:

Hello readers! If you don't know me, my name is Katie Nguyen, currently a Junior at Michigan State University, studying Marketing. I rushed PGN Fall of 2023 and held Photography Chair for 2 semester until I acquired my current position, Alumni Relations Chair under VP of Internal. Some fun facts about me: I've sang my entire life, I love to cook and if the zombie apocalypse happened, I'd find refuge in a Costco. I'm honored to be the new writer and editor of the PGN newsletter and I can't wait to continue working with our amazing alumni and play with Canva all day.

FIND US:

@ PHI GAMMA NU - OMICRON

@ PGNMSU